Station to help seafarers in Oshawa

By Stuart Wilson

THE St. John's Anglican church can't wait to board the first seafarers who will come into the port of Oshawa this spring and summer. The church is part of the 'Seafarers' Club' (SC) for sailors and fishermen, which is a non-profit organization that provides a safe and comfortable place for seafarers to rest and eat. The club is located in the Oshawa waterfront area and is a joint venture between the Anglican church and the local fishing industry.

Churches join forces to bring family over

By Stuart Wilson

THE St. John's Anglican church is celebrating the arrival of a new family in Oshawa. The family, consisting of a husband, a wife, and two children, has moved to the area and is settling into their new home. The church has been instrumental in helping the family with their transition, providing them with a warm and welcoming environment. The family is grateful for the support and care they have received from the church community.
