The Elements of Roman Law. With a translation of the Institutes of Justinian. By R. W. LEE, D.C.L., F.B.A., Reader in Roman Law of the Inns of Court. Reprinted with corrections 1946 [London: Sweet & Maxwell, Ltd. xxiii and 489 pp. 22s. 6d.].

DR. LEE'S lucid and scholarly Introduction to Roman Law was received with much praise when it first appeared in 1944. It is gratifying to see that its success was such as to require a reprint after only two years. The book must be recommended to all students of Roman Law.

Hapraklit, December, 1945 and January, 1946. Published by the Jewish Bar Association of Palestine, Tel Aviv.

Hapraklit is a Palestinian monthly, in Hebrew, intended for the practitioner with wider interests, each number containing about thirty pages. The numbers under review contain, among other interesting items, notes on recent decisions of English courts; a lecture by Sir Arnold McNair on the effect of the world wars on contracts; and an article by Dr. P. Dikshtein on the latest legislation respecting bigamous marriage. The new rules are the result of harmonious collaboration of the Administration and the Rabbinate, in a field which, owing to the complicated state of Jewish law concerning polygamy, bristles with difficulties.
